WORKFORCE SUBCABINET

Katie Ralston Howe

Al Dohrmann

Governor Armstrong has put together a Workforce Taskforce that has met every other week over the summer months. The Subcabinet is made up of agency leadership and elected officials with workforce programming. 30 members and almost a dozen.

Katie gave an overview of the mission, goals, shared vision to envision a successful workforce ecosystem, along with tracking the measurements

Established Goals:

- Established shared Vision for Workforce
- Established Shared Goals for the Subcabinet
- Activated Three Task Forces
- Developed a Preliminary List of Shared Measures for Success

One Shared Vision

- A skilled workforce that fuels North Dakota's economy

Three Taskforces have been activated to align goals to:

- Simplify entry – create a new workforce ecosystem landing page
- Data Integration - Develop and launch public facing dashboard focused on shared success measures
- Warm Handoffs – Empower workforce team members with a shared understanding of the workforce system.

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

Leigh Otey, Deloitte Consulting

Tracking data at the ecosystem level, offers several strategic, operational, and community benefits.

The assessment outlined four key areas for future focus:

- Strategic Vision: Defining clear goals and roles for ecosystem steering.
- Customer Focus: Streamlining access and engaging with customer needs.
- Awareness and Engagement: Enhancing outreach to communities and partners.
- Information Tracking and Sharing: Improving data collection and sharing for program efficiency.

EVOLVING ROLE OF WDC AND SUBCOMMITTEES

Katie Ralston Howe

During the March WDC meeting Deloitte worked with the council to focus on current areas and the subcommittees, as outlined in the WIOA State Plan. Members at the March meeting were asked what a 6th core theme would be considered for a focus area.

Current Focus Areas and Subcommittees:

- Earlier and more diverse career exploration
- Addressing the technical skills gap
- Removing barriers to employment
- Recruitment and retention of workers
- Occupational licensure reform

Additional Focus Areas for Consideration that were brought forward at the March meeting:

- Tech enablement strategy
- Employer engagement
- Community engagement
- System alignment
- Public awareness – build a team dedicated to developing a communication plan/strategy
 - Who is the public we are focusing on – education, kids, economic development with new jobs
- Global Talent – Removing Barriers – foreign born workers employment
- Rural opportunities

It was mentioned that the subcommittee of Occupational licensure could be released from the current focus area.

Industry Led System for ND and how ND is to operate differently to support this future.

- Key sectors that ND are successful and growing and how to build the sectoral partnerships
- Industry alignment with recruitment of workers-system alignment, workers that will grow communities and economy.

GOVERNOR'S WORKFORCE SUMMIT

Katie Ralston Howe

Katie talked about the proposed agenda for the summit, to take place on the Bismarck State College Campus on October 2.

- The summit will provide a focused forum between workforce program staff and leadership, policymakers, educators, industry leaders, employers, and professionals to align key priorities.
- The summit will reveal and socialize the workforce ecosystem's unified vision and goals guided by the Governor's Workforce Subcabinet.
